

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTION TO PROCEEDINGS

“The Next 100 Years”

10th INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF HITTITOLOGY
10. ULUSLARARASI HİTİTOLOJİ KONGRESİ

December 15, 2017

Dear participants in the 10th International Congress of Hittitology,

Many thanks for your participation and your contribution to the stimulating and successful atmosphere of the 10th International Congress of Hittitology. We now would like to invite you to submit the final, written version of the paper you presented. We plan to publish the proceedings of the conference in the CHD Supplement series. This series is published by the Oriental Institute (OI) Press. This means that, as with all OI publications, all contributions are subject to peer review, so publication is not guaranteed. After we have received the reviewer(s) comments on your paper we may ask you to take those comments into account for final submission of your paper. The deadline for submissions is June 1, 2018.

A style sheet is attached. As indicated on the style sheet, there is a 45,000 keystroke limit to individual submissions, which should be submitted both as a Word file and in pdf.

Please let us know if you intend to publish your paper with us.

We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Theo van den Hout

Arthur and Joann Rasmussen Professor of Hittite
and Anatolian Languages
The Oriental Institute, Department of Near Eastern
Languages and Civilizations, and the College
University of Chicago
email tvdhout@uchicago.edu
tel. +1-773-834-4688

Petra Goedegebuure

Associate Professor of Hittitology
The Oriental Institute, Department of Near Eastern
Languages and Civilizations, and the College
University of Chicago
email pgoedegebuure@uchicago.edu
tel. +1-773-702-9550