Yoko was born in Aomori, Japan. She completed her BS, MS and PhD degrees at Toyohashi University of Technology. Under the supervision of Professor Seiji Iwasa, she worked on Ru(II)-Pheox-catalyzed asymmetric carbene transfer reactions. Yoko worked for Toray Industries, Inc. in Japan (2019–2021) after obtaining her PhD, then she changed the direction of her life and started her academic career as a postdoctoral scholar at INSA Rouen Normandie, France (2021–2022) and the University of Chicago (2022–present). In her free time, Yoko likes spending time with her super cute cats.
